Public Session:

April Frank, 84 WSC commented to the Board her concerns on the following issues: Kids often play in the parking lots and letters should be sent to all parents to stop this behavior. Ronald Sorrell, Chief of Security accompanied her in her court case with Melvin Burrell, 86 WSC who was found not guilty of a criminal act of harassment. She wants to schedule a meeting with the Authority to discuss her maintenance repair and late payment charges on her account which she feels are incorrect and also stated that someone is revealing her personal information to other tenants.

A motion was made by Commissioner Sorrell to close the public session. Commissioner Rosario seconded. All were in favor.
